HAVE A PLAN

Develop A Family Disaster Plan:

Make a plan with your household members: know what you will do, how to find each other, and how to communicate in an emergency.

- Decide where you will meet in an emergency. Choose two locations: one place right outside your home and another outside your neighborhood.
- Identify exit routes from your home and neighborhood.
- Share phone numbers and email addresses with family members, and know how you will communicate. Identify an out-of-state friend or relative that household members can call.
- Plan for everyone's needs, especially people with medical needs or disabilities, seniors, children and pets.
- Know what to do if you must evacuate: know where you will go, what you will take with you, and how you will get there.
- Know what to do if you must shelter-in-place. Locate the safest locations in your home and place of work, and know what supplies you will need to be comfortable for up to 3 days.
- Share your plan with household and family members.

BUILD A KIT

Build Your Emergency Kit Now.

Emergencies and disasters sometimes happen without notice.

Use the Emergency Supplies Checklist in this Emergency Preparedness Guide, and consider the following:

- Keep your supplies in an easy-to-carry kit that you can use at home or take with you in case you must evacuate.
- Keep a kit in your car as well.
- Have enough food, water, medicine and other supplies to last for at least 72 hours.
- Include supplies for all members of your household, including seniors, children, people with disabilities, and pets.
- Include supplies in your kit to help you manage without basic services such as electricity, gas, water, sewerage and telephone.
- Collect and safeguard critical documents: financial and personal records, identification papers. See www.ready.gov/financial-preparedness.

Visit www.mass.gov/mema for a full list of supplies to include in your emergency kit.
